Young Military Leadership Award
Application

Award Application

Brigadier General Charles Young Military Leadership Award

BG (Bro) Charles Young was elected as the second honorary member of our Fraternity on March 8, 1912. BG Young, the highest ranking African-American officer in the military at the time of his death, died in Africa on January 8, 1922. To commemorate the great works of this Omega Man, the Omega Memorial Day as well as the Ritual were both revised by the 1922 Grand Conclave held in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. BG Young was highly respected by the Brothers of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. and is still regarded today as a great military leader and a role model for all Omega Men.

The International Achievement Week Committee will evaluate nominations from the Districts based on the following criteria:

1. Nominees must be financial and in good standing on the Chapter, District and International Levels.
2. Nominees must be in the Reserves, National Guard, or on Active Duty with any branch of the US Armed Service during the period in which he is nominated.
3. Nominees can be considered no more than one (1) year after retirement and/ or separation.
4. Retired/ separated nominees must have served honorably.
5. Nominees must have demonstrated meritorious service as well as outstanding leadership characteristics during the period in which they were nominated.
6. Nominees must not have any pending UCMJ actions, flags, or any unfavorable procedures taken during the period in which they are nominated. (Required for ORB/ERB to validate that the nominee is not involved in UCMJ action or review.)
7. Nominees' rank is not a consideration for this award (nominees can be enlisted, warrant officer, or a commissioned officer).
8. Nominees must have made outstanding contributions to the Fraternity at the Chapter, District, International levels (Chapters/District are expected to support all International and District mandated programs) and the military.
9. Nominees must have served in a manner above and beyond the ordinary participation levels necessary to implement programs and projects. Nominees must be involved with the organization, planning and implementation of programs and projects.
10. Documentation associated with this award must demonstrate the nominee's activities and be certified by the Basileus and Keeper of Records and Seal on the Chapter level.
